

To institute one world religion, I seek to inspire the fanbase of my writings to infiltrate all world religion by writing their own essays to the popular public forums of the various religions
of the world, so that the essays appear to be the perfect example of the dogma
of the given religion,
injected with the ideas of this Essays section and the independent ideas of the individuals that have read (some of) them.

A prank
never to be revealed
for a prank.

Inject religion with reason, science, fairness
and loyalty,
skepticism
and open mindedness

Maybe
you could spend one month studying Islam Christianity Judaism or Hinduism or Buddhism Or Sikhism,
anything... Mastering
the dogma of the mainstream of it, then ponder
what to inject
into it.
