

Individuation Ceremony Level Four Part One

Individuate wears a blue robe.

There should be a cup of water, used by the Individuate as a form of baptism during the ceremony, sprinkled upon his/her head as the Water of Life is mentioned, and totally consumed at the conclusion of the Individuator's speech.

Water serves only as a symbol for life in this ceremony,
which is an initiation
into living free, pure, & happy.

The four sides of the altar are to be decorated w/ 1 symbol each for the four lower circuits of human consciousness, The top of the altar is to be decorated w/ hedonic artwork, or anything conveying a feeling of intense carnal pleasure. 5th Circuit stimulation from 4th Circuit purification.

Individuator: Many deaths have ye died for the purification of thy soul. Today ye emerge from the fires of change, are cleansed by the water of life, uplifted by airy destiny. Forever shall ye feel a little apart from this earthly sphere, for ye have ascended above it.

Thou art life for thou art love.

Enough of sorrow, sorrow, sorrow... Take thy fill of ([women/men]), of gold, and of all things pleasant to thee, for success is Now.

Thou art life for thou art love.

Love all for Thou art love.

Be joyous now and tomorrow, for life is joy and Thou art it!
